In addition, Secretary of War Baker. Secretary of the Navy Daniels, and others, will make brief addresses. Civic associations of the city will hold forty-two distinct celebrations on registration day, Charles S. Shreve, president of the Federation of Citizens' Associations, announced yesterday.

The Boy Scouts' Band, it was announced, would play at 4:30 p. m. at the scene of the celebration. A concert by the United States Marine Band will start at 5 p. m. The speaking program will follow.

Church bells and whisties all over the city will arouse any would-be sleepy heads at 7 a. m. on registration day. The committee again asked yesterday that factories, steamboats and public institutions join in the noise-making.

Absence registration speeded up yesterday as the time limit for mailins, registrations to various parts of the country became shorter. Nearly 1,600 persons now living in the District and away from their permanent homes have already signed registrations cards.

The witness defended his course in the strike, and claimed that the trouble which followed the walkout of the men could not be attribued to the company.

Senator Johnson of California, appeared particularly interested in President's King's statement that before the strike of last year twenty-three motormen and conductors were discharged for inefficiency but were later reinstated by the company. President King admitted that their inefficiency consisted of discussing the union and joining the union.

Asked if he had regard for public opinion. President King answered, "Yes, a very high regard." Responding to another question he said that he would have detailed the contrast between the contrast contract other question he said that he would have the same high regard for public cpinion as expressed in the report which the investigating committee will make afer the hearing.

SOUSA ENLISTS IN NAVY.

Chicago, May 31.—John Phillip Sousa today began his duties as an enlisted man in the Naval Reserves at Lake Bluff training station. His enlistment—the sec-ond of his career—was a matter of form to qualify him to conduct the training station band which he hopes to develop to an organization of 300 pieces. Sousa formerly held the rank of lieutenant of marines when he directed the famous Ma-rine Band at Washington.

Confederates Will See Vast Contrast

Next Monday the first ambulance unit raised in Washington, which is scheduled to do active services behind the French trenches in three months, will depart for six weeks' intensive training at the mobilization camp in Allentown, Pa.

Dr. Ryan Devereux, who had charge of raising and equipping the unit, expected to have his volunteers ready to leave last night, but unexpected delays halted the departure and the full corps of 180 men will not be in camp until next week.
